

- a. Moral problems in applying professional codes of ethics.
 - b. Ethical responsibilities in cybersecurity
 - c. White-hat vs. black-hat hacking
 - d. Cybercrime and ethical implications
 - e. Potential impacts of computerization on all participants in business
 - g. Professional codes for computers as assists for the handicapped
 - h. The seven principles of professional ethics
 - j. The difference between a patent, copyright, and trademark
- (5 Marks each)

=END OF THE EXAM=

- b. Discuss the critical importance of data privacy in today's digital landscape, particularly for companies managing large volumes of personal information. (10 Marks)
- c. Explain the harmful outcomes that can arise from inadequate data privacy, referencing the recent breach as an example. (7 Marks)

Question Four

A startup developing innovative software tools is considering using open-source components but is concerned about copyright infringements.

- a. Define intellectual property right and explain its significance in the field of information technology, specifically for startups. (10 Marks)
- b. Describe how IT practices, such as file sharing and peer-to-peer networks, can infringe on intellectual property rights and lead to moral dilemmas. (7 Marks)
- c. Explain the concept of fair use in the digital age and analyze its ethical implications for both content creators and users. (8 Marks)

Question Five

As Uganda modernizes its digital infrastructure, it has updated its legal framework to combat cybercrimes.

- a. Outline the key components of Uganda's cyber law frameworks like the Computer Misuse Act and the Data Protection and Privacy Act. (10 Marks)
- b. How do these laws work together to protect individuals and businesses from cybercrimes, and what challenges does Uganda face in enforcing these laws? (10 Marks)
- c. Discuss the balance between national security and personal privacy within Uganda's framework, including potential ethical concerns. (5 Marks)

Question Six

A government agency implements a surveillance program to monitor online communications for terrorism prevention, raising privacy concerns.

- a. What are the ethical implications of implementing such a surveillance program, and what principles should guide the government in balancing security and privacy? (8 Marks)
- b. Analyze how citizens' concerns about privacy infringements could affect public trust in the government and compliance with security measures. (7 Marks)
- c. Discuss the ten commandments of computing ethics and discuss their potential impact on government. (10 Marks)

Question Seven

In the bustling tech hub of Silicon Valley, a group of young entrepreneurs has just launched a revolutionary social media platform called "ConnectUs." This platform promotes open communication and community-building among users. However, as they scale rapidly, they face a multitude of ethical challenges and moral problems. Write short notes on any five of the following as pertains social issues, internet issues and ethics;

MAKERERE UNIVERSITY BUSINESS SCHOOL
FINAL EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF BUSINESS
COMPUTING (BBC) OF MAKERERE UNIVERSITY
ACADEMIC YEAR 2024/2025

COURSE NAME: COMPUTING ETHICS
YEAR OF STUDY: THREE
CREDIT UNITS: 3
DATE: 14/5/2025
SEMESTER: TWO
COURSE CODE: BUC3216
TIME: 9:00AM-12:00 NOON

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Students are required to answer any FOUR questions
2. Maximum time allowed is 3 hours
3. Use of relevant examples will earn you extra marks

Question One

A tech company is debating whether to prioritize the speed of delivery or a thorough ethical review of its data-handling features for a new product.

- a. Define ethics, morals, and law and discuss the interrelationships between them. (12 Marks)
- b. Discuss any two traditional ethical theories and how they might guide the team's decision on ethical reviews versus rapid product deployment. (13 Marks)

Question Two

A social media platform faces backlash after reports reveal rampant-explicit-content and spam due to insufficient content moderation.

- a. Identify three moral problems encountered when using the Internet in this context. (7 Marks)
- b. What ethical dilemmas arise between censorship and freedom of speech on such platforms, and how might educational strategies like group discussions help IT professionals navigate these challenges? (10 Marks)
- c. Discuss the role of professional codes such as the ACM Code of Ethics in addressing these dilemmas and conflicts within the tech community. (8 Marks)

Question Three

A mobile application collected extensive personal data and suffered a data breach, which led to public outcry.

- a. Define data privacy and describe the types of personal information it aims to protect within the mobile application's context. (8 Marks)