

Block 1 - 4

QUESTION ONE

During the seminar organized by the Youth Entrepreneurship Development Program, one of the facilitators lamented that 'Business organizations are in existence because they want to pursue their economic objectives'. As a business student well versed with the knowledge of business administration, examine the validity of this statement citing relevant examples. (25 Marks)

QUESTION TWO

- You have been approached by a colleague who is among the promoters intending to register a public limited company in Uganda. Advise him on the features of a Public Limited company (13 marks)
- Examine the requirements for the incorporation of a public limited company according to the Uganda's Companies ACT. (12 Marks)

QUESTION THREE

Insurance is a contract of indemnity where the Insurer makes good the loss made by the insured.

- As a business student, refer to the above statement to examine any six guiding principles governing Insurance contracts (15 Marks)
- Examine the reasons why some people and organizations find it hard to embrace such contracts (10 Marks)

QUESTION FOUR

As a Production Manager of a newly established company dealing in manufacturing of different commodities;

- Examine the factors you would put into consideration when coming up with a product design (10 Marks)
- Explain the activities you are likely to execute while undertaking production planning and control (15 Marks)

00 00.5 18

QUESTION FIVE

You have been recruited as a new Finance Manager of JERRY BEST Beverages Uganda Ltd. As required by the Managing Director on your first assignment, make a presentation on the following:

- a) Roles you are most likely to perform (5 Marks)
- b) Difference between fixed capital and working capital (8 Marks)
- c) Reasons why different organizations have different working capital requirements (12 Marks)

End of question paper