

QUESTION ONE

Brisa forex bureau is a newly established private limited company to operate within the 7 member states of the East African Community with its head office in Uganda. It will engage in buying and selling of foreign currency cash. You have been hired as a new risk manager:

- a) Explain the importance of risk management to the Board of Directors who have trusted you with that new role. (10 marks)
- b) Using relevant examples, explain the strategies that the organization should put in place in order to mitigate business risks. (15 marks)

QUESTION TWO

As a production manager of Uganda clays limited, you have been tasked by the managing director to make a presentation to the board of directors on the following as regards the production function.

- a) Discuss the factors you should put into consideration as far as product design decision is concerned. (10 marks)
- b) Examine the likely attributes of a desirable plant layout that can enable the company achieve its production goals. (15 marks).

QUESTION THREE

Using examples from Uganda;

- a) Differentiate between a merger and an acquisition (5 marks)
- b) Explain the rationale for business combinations (10 marks)
- c) Examine any 5 types of business combinations known to you (10 marks)

QUESTION FOUR

You have been approached by a group of investors that are interested in forming a joint stock company.

- a) Examine the features of a joint stock company (5 marks)

- b) Explain why they should opt for a public limited liability rather than a private limited liability company(10 marks)
- c) Describe to them the contents of the memorandum of association for registration purposes (10 marks)

QUESTION FIVE

Write short but comprehensive notes on the following

- a) Partnership Deed (5 marks)
- b) Features of a cooperative organizations (5 marks)
- c) Ordinary shares versus preference shares (5 marks)
- d) Re-insurance versus Double insurance (5 marks)
- e) Characteristics of entrepreneurs (5 marks)

THE END

21/10/2015

QUESTION ONE

ABC Construction Company is planning to start the construction of its branches in different districts of the country worth $ 8 million dollars. Assuming you are hired as a project manager for these projects,

- a) Explain the key project knowledge areas involved in the construction project. (15 marks)
- b) Using examples, explain the factors that contribute to project failures in Uganda (10 marks)

QUESTION TWO

You have been hired as a new finance manager of Century bottling company:

- a) Examine the key roles you are most likely to execute in this new position. (5 marks)
- b) Explain the reasons why century bottling company has different working capital requirements compared to other organizations. (10 marks)
- c) Discuss the short term financing options available for the company to enable it manage its working capital requirements (10 marks)

QUESTION THREE

Uganda's national development plan three (NDP III) puts emphasis on the development and revival of cooperatives including SACCOs as a strategy towards private sector development. In relation to this:

- (a) Define and explain the features of a cooperative form of business (05 marks)
- (b) Explain why NDP III emphasizes the revival of cooperatives in Uganda (08 marks)
- (c) Describe the formation process of cooperatives in Uganda (12 marks)

QUESTION FOUR

Using relevant examples in Uganda, Evaluate the contribution of Multinational corporations in Uganda. (25 marks)

QUESTION FIVE

Write short but comprehensive notes on the following :

- a) Forward vertical integration versus backward vertical integration (5 marks)
- b) Activities involved in production planning and control (5 marks)
- c) Systematic versus unsystematic risks (5 marks)
- d) Principal agent relationship (5 marks)
- e) Features of a business (5 marks)

THE END

✓QUESTION ONE

- a) "Many Ugandans shy away from risk management because of different reasons", commented a young entrepreneur. As a student who has studied business risk management, explain the various threat management approaches that a business can use to deal with risks. (15 Marks).
- b) Apart from subrogation, explain any other five principles of insurance (10 Marks)

QUESTION TWO

- a) Having been taught that "maintaining working capital is one of the most important factors for the continuity of a business", explain reasons why some businesses keep a high working capital. (15 Marks)
- b) Apart from retained earnings, what are the other long term sources of finance available to public limited companies (10 marks)

QUESTION THREE

- a) Using MTN as an organization of your choice, discuss how creation of a large customer base has enabled it to achieve all its other business objectives. (17 Marks)
- b) Despite the fact that businesses are started with many objectives, sometimes they are unable to achieve all. Why do some businesses find it so hard to achieve their intended objectives? (8 marks)

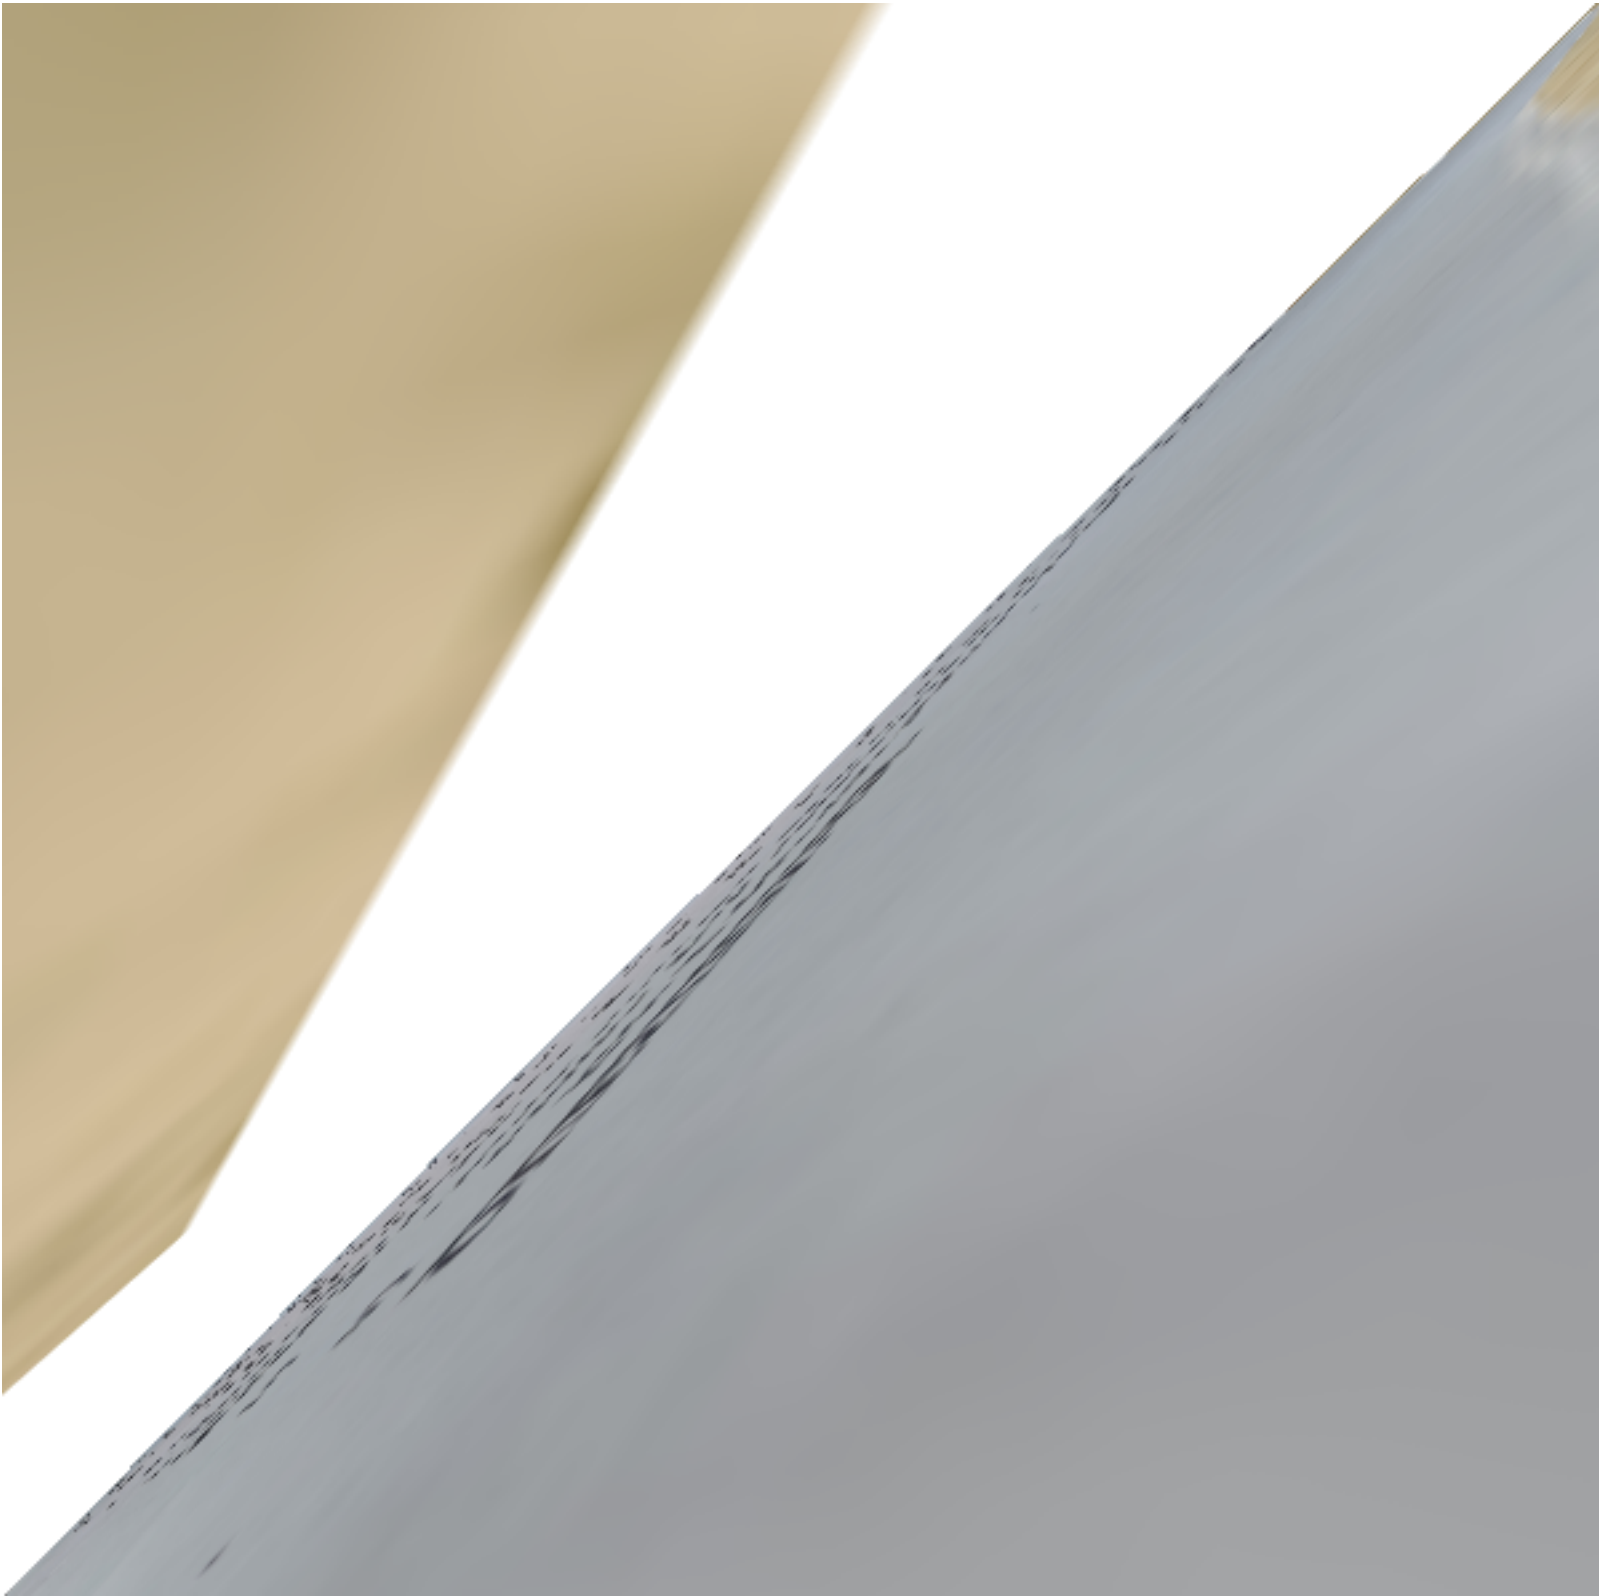

QUESTION FOUR

- a) Discuss the different components of Memorandum of Association those planning to register a company must know. (10 Marks)
- b) Describe the production process of a manufacturing firm of your choice using an illustration. (7 Marks)
- c) Explain the subunits that make up the production department of a manufacturing firm. (8 Marks)

QUESTION FIVE

Write short but comprehensive notes about the following;

- a) Reasons for business combination (8 Marks)
- b) Limitations of corporate social responsibility (6 Marks)
- c) Cumulative versus non-cumulative preference shares (4 Marks)
- d) Limited partnerships versus limited liability partnerships (4 Marks)
- e) Exchange motive (3 Marks)

PROSSIE'S
PHOTOCOPIER
BLOCK 1 RM4

QUESTION ONE

During the seminar organized by the Youth Entrepreneurship Development Program, one of the facilitators lamented that 'Business organizations are in existence because they want to pursue their economic objectives'. As a business student well versed with the knowledge of business administration, examine the validity of this statement citing relevant examples. (25 Marks)

QUESTION TWO

- You have been approached by a colleague who is among the promoters intending to register a public limited company in Uganda. Advise him on the features of a Public Limited company (13 marks)
- Examine the requirements for the incorporation of a public limited company according to the Uganda's Companies ACT. (12 Marks)

QUESTION THREE

Insurance is a contract of indemnity where the Insurer makes good the loss made by the insured.

- As a business student, refer to the above statement to examine any six guiding principles governing Insurance contracts (15 Marks)
- Examine the reasons why some people and organizations find it hard to embrace such contracts (10 Marks)

QUESTION FOUR

As a Production Manager of a newly established company dealing in manufacturing of different commodities;

- Examine the factors you would put into consideration when coming up with a product design (10 Marks)
- Explain the activities you are likely to execute while undertaking production planning and control (15 Marks)

PROSSIE'S

QUESTION FIVE

You have been recruited as a new Finance Manager of JERRY BEET Beverages Uganda Ltd. As required by the Managing Director on your first assignment, make a presentation on the following;

- a) Roles you are most likely to perform (5 Marks)
- b) Difference between fixed capital and working capital (8 Marks)
- c) Reasons why different organizations have different working capital requirements (12 Marks)

End of question paper